

Welcome to the Congress "SAFE SETTINGS"

Horatio European Congress 10-12th May 2018 in the Faroe Islands

Facebook: HORATIO - European Association for Psychiatric Nurses

Twitter: @Horatio_eu

Twitter: @FpsFaroese

Conference agenda for Safe Settings

10 th.May

7.45-8.45	Registration
9.00-10.15	Opening Ceremony
10.15-10.45	Coffee break and poster visit
10.45-11.30	Keynote 1: Sirið Stenberg, Minister of Health and Interior Faroese Government, Faroe Islands: "Equality in health"
11.30-12.30	Workshop, Symposium and Concurrent sessions

Høllin – room number 1	Klingran – room number 2	Dansistovan – room number 3
Workshop	Workshop	Symposium
De-escalation a social and collaborative process in mental health care settings Lene Lauge Berring, Denmark	Safe treatment of forensic MH outpatients by regular community mental health teams Diana Polhuis, Netherlands	Safe settings for "Play and creation - a way to mental health" - The practice development of a holding and empowering environment based on creative self-actualization. Ole Wich, Faroe Islands

Skáin – room number 4	Norðurstova – room number 5	Eysturstova – room number 6
Concurrent:	Concurrent:	Concurrent:
Title: The ward atmosphere and the role of nursing staff in psychiatric in-patient settings Hanna Tuveesson, Sweden Title: Attendees perspective on the quality in community-based day centre services for people with psychiatric disabilities Lars-Olov Lundqvist: Sweden Title: The Canadian Federation of Mental Health Nurses Standards of Practice 4th ed. Elaine Santa Mina, Canada	Title: How to Prevent Coercion in Danish Mental Health Care - A Longitudinal Cluster Study Jesper Bak, Denmark Title: Improving Physical health for persons with schizophrenia or other long-term psychotic conditions in psychiatric outpatient services. Marjut Blomquist, Sweden: Title: Screening women for birth depression in a small-scale society - the significance of feeling safe for the outcome of the screening Anna Sofía Fjallheim, Faroe Islands:	Title: The role of the nurse in charge in the prevention and management of aggression in acute psychiatric units Christine Larkin, Ireland Title: Sound and Music Intervention to empower patients to handle anxiety and agitation or support the improvement relaxation or sleep Sanne Storm, Faroe Islands Title: Informal coercion: a neglected form of communication in psychiatric settings Franziska Rabensclag, Switzerland

12.30-13.30

Lunch and poster visit

13.30-14.45

Keynote 2: Agnes Higgins, Sexual safety: the neglected discourse in mental health

14.45-15.15

Coffee break and poster visit

15.15-16.15

Workshop, Symposium and Concurrent sessions

Höllin – room number 1	Klingran – room number 2	Dansistovan – room number 3
Workshop	workshop	Concurrent
Moving a Rhetoric of 'Trauma Informed Practice' into Mental Health Nursing Reality	Supervision is recognized internationally as part of good professional practice.	Title: Suicide Risk Assessments: Is there evidence from nurses and clients of practice that supports safety

Liam Mac Gabhann, Ireland	Pauline Butler, Ireland	Elaine Santa Mina, Canada Title: Smart Homes: Health Care Technology to Assist Recovery for Psychiatric Inpatients Cheryl Forchuk, Canada Title: Witnessing Dying – The therapeutic courage of listening to people with a lived experience of mental illness who are facing death Sharon Picot, Australia.
Skáin – room number 4	Norðurstova – room number 5	Eysturstova – room number 6
Concurrent sessions	Concurrent sessions	Concurrent sessions
Title: Examine the possible correlation between violence and compassion satisfaction and fatigue and experience with traumatic life events among mental health professionals working in a forensic department. Jacob Hvidhjelm, Denmark Title: Safewards: The Irish experience Safe treatment of forensic MH outpatients by regular community mental health teams Christina Larkin, Ireland	Title: Devil and the Deep Blue Sea - Are Patients Forced to Choose Between Peer Support Workers and Mental Health Nurses? Jonathon Slater: England Title: From 'Person- centered' care to 'Person-driven' care: Towards a new umbrella term for future mental health care Dirk Richter, Switzerland	Title: Benefits of collaboration in treatment of dementia disease Marjun Restorff, Faroe Islands Title: Multiprofessional Skill- and -Grade - Mix in Forensic Psychiatry: Which Mixture is necessary to provide person centered treatment in a safe environment Claudia Loetscher:, Switzerland Title: Influence of staffing levels on the incidence of conflict and use of containment in in- patient psychiatric care Andre Nienaber, Germany

16.30-17.30

Keynote 3: Simon Tulloch, If you see something, say something.

19.00 -

Reception at City Council

11 th.May

8.00-8.45 Registration

9.00-10.00 Keynote 4: Dirk Richter "Housing for people with mental illness: Preferences, outcomes and what mental health professionals can do about it"

10.00-10.30 Coffee Break and poster visit

10.30-11.30 Workshop, Symposium and concurrent sessions

Høllin – room number 1	Klingran – room number 2	Dansistovan – room number 3
Workshop	Workshop	Concurrent sessions
How to create Psychological Safety in your workplace Simon Tulloch, Denmark	Human Rights and the Implementation of the Recovery Model in Ireland. Patricia Campbell, Ireland	Title: Harming through negligence - the overwhelming need for learning disability communities to recruit mental health nurses to help create safe communities Jonathon Slater: England Title: Have you seen My PAL?' Physical Achievement Log: A physical health tool for people with severe mental illness (SMI) pilot study in collaboration with the National Forensic Mental Health Service Sinéade Hennessy, Ireland Title: Recovery College: An Emancipatory Approach to Personal Growth and Community Connection Liam Mac Gabhann: Ireland

Skáin – room number 4	Norðurstova – room number 5	Eysturstova – room number 6
Concurrent	Concurrent	Concurrent
Title: The “Sigmaringen model” to reduce seclusion and restraint in psychiatry Alex Theodor Gogolkiewicz, Germany Title: Individual Cooperation Plan – a tool for reducing the use of coercive care Jeanette Jonsson, Sweden. Title: The benefits of sensory modulation on levels of distress for consumers in a mental health emergency setting Eimear Muir-Cochrane Australia	Title: Predictors of outpatient nursing service use from people with mental health problems in Switzerland Christian Burr, Switzerland Title: Adolescent mental well-being _ assessment and perceived supportive elements Pinja Kokkonen/, Evanthia Sakkelari, Finland Title. Preventing Discharge of Psychiatric Inpatients into Homelessness Cheryl Forchuk, Canada	Title: Safe care - changes in education of psychiatric nurses in Czech Republic Tomas Petr, Czech Republic Title: What are the perceived effects of and satisfaction with clinical supervision amongst psychiatric nurses availing of clinical supervision in Saint John of God Hospital Ciaran Cuddihy, Ireland

11.30-12.30
12.30-13.30

Keynote 5: Katarina Nolsøe – The search for being
Lunch and poster visit

13.30-14.30
14.30-15.00

Keynote 6: Thomas Kearns – Patient and Nurse Safety

15.00-15.30
15.30-16.30

Coffee Break and poster visit
Workshop, Symposium and Concurrent Sessions

Høllin – room number 1	Klingran – room number 2	Dansistovan – room number 3
Symposium	Concurrent	Concurrent
The quiet superiority of the medical sickness model in mental health system cultures is a hindrance: Critiquing and co-producing peer support for safer settings in the NHS. Nicky Lambert, England	Title: Experiences of people living with mental illness in Switzerland – a qualitative inquiry Peter Wolfersberger, England	Title: Safe settings for women experiencing distress labeled as borderline personality disorder Terese McDonough, Ireland

	Title: Evil, psycho monster killers? Who do the cameras and fences that typify high secure forensic care really protect? Terez Burrow: United Kingdom	Title: Emotional safety in mental health nursing Nina Kilkku, Finland Title: Early maladaptive schemas in psychiatric nurses and helping professions in Germany Pascal Wabnitz, Germany
Skáin – room number 4	Norðurstova – room number 5	Eysturstova – room number 6
Concurrent	Concurrent	Concurrent
Title: Nurse-patient therapeutic relationship as a cornerstone for creating safety culture Aljosa Lapanja, Slovenia : Title: The experience of safety in a world open to virtual intrusion Colman Noctor, Ireland	Title: Living in a paradox: Experiences in adults, who as children, lived with at least one parent experiencing mental illness in a small- scale society Kristianna Dam, Faroe Islands Title: Health professionals in primary mental health care, their perceptions of quality of care and attitudes towards working with families. Oeyfrid Larsen Moen: Norway Title: Family perceptions about the needs of people with enduring mental health problems within an inpatient setting Andrew Walsh, United Kingdom	Title: Young adults living with mental illness and their family in community mental health settings. Lisbeth Kjelsrud, Norway Title: The experiences of family-centred care intervention from the perspectives of health professionals in a community mental health care setting in Norway Hege Skundberg-Kletthagen: Norway

16.45-17.45

Keynote 7: Michael Schulz "Safety aspects within the scope of person – centered care and self – determination in psychiatric settings"

17.45 –
18.00

18.15-20.15

GA Horatio

12 th.May

9.00-10.00	Keynote 8: Geoff Brennan "Safewards – user friendly culture change?"
10.00-10.15	 with Recovery
10.15-10.45	Coffee Break and poster visit
10.45-11.45	Keynote 9: Jason Leitch "Using Quality Improvement across the Public Sector: Lessons from Scotland"
12.00-13.00	Ending ceremony
13.00 -	Excursions ad libitum: https://www.greengate.fo/en/conferences-incentives/upcoming/safe-settings-10-12-may-2018/excursions/
19.00 -	Galladinner at Hotel Føroyar Registration for Galla Dinner at Green Gate

Posters

Living in a paradox: Experiences in adults, who as children, lived with at least one parent experiencing mental illness in a small-scale society

Kristianna Dam, Faroe Islands

Less Known Environments: Child and Adolescent Psychiatric Clinics

Nareg Dogan

International Comparisons _ A focus on Quality in Psychaitric Care

Agneta Schroeder, Norway

Regulation of medical treatment as a group course for adolescents diagnosed with ADHD

Sanne Lemcke

Education programme in Psychiatric Nursing in Denmark. Education that makes a difference in practice

Ina Mie Rasmssen

Equine-assisted therapeutic interventions among individuals diagnosed with schizophrenia

Henrika Jormfeldt

The antecedents of violence and suicide on inpatient mental health units: A literature review

Neil Crowhurst

The effect of psycho-education techniques in self-esteem and in patients' quality of life following long-term injection treatment

EVANTHIA Sakellari

The role of peer support in mental health care

Wendy Van Londersele,

What are the experiences of the relatives with regard to being partners in the cooperation with the Psychiatric department, and what are the significant factors that would contribute to them having an active role in the recovery of their family members?

Óluva Poulsen

Psychiatric nursing in Slovakia

Matina Dubovcova

The Quiet Room at Acute Psychiatry Unit 1: Patients« experiences

Martina Dubovcova

The Quiet Room at Acute Psychiatry Unit 1: Patients« experiences

Hanna Rajala-Koenkytö

Regular contact prevents suicide

Randi Borðoy

Defining the genetic etiology of Alzheimer«s disease in the Faroe Islands

Marjun Restorff

Shared Decision-Making—Balancing Between Power and Responsibility as Mental Health Care Professionals in a Therapeutic Milieu

Lise Beyene

The implementation of the Safewards Model in the Acute Psychiatric Ward

Teija Tynjälä

Implementation of EWS (Early Warning Score) at the ward and in the community care

Eydna Iversen Lindenskov, Lisbeth Vang og Jana Mortensen

For information about the event: <http://www.horatio-web.eu/>

For further information and registration: www.greengate.fo/safe-settings

Date: 6.3.2018

Changes may occoure